

Court of General Gaol Delivery - Jury Payments

Payments that jurors are entitled to are determined by legislation (the Jury Act 1980, as amended by Statutory Document SD 60/03 and Government Circular No. 3/03).

All Trials

All jurors are entitled to the following payments:

Remuneration

| | |
|---|--------|
| When the trial sits for a full day: | £56.00 |
| When the trial sits during only on half of a day: | £28.50 |

morning session is up to 1:00pm afternoon session is from 1:00pm

Subsistence

A juror is entitled to daily subsistence at the following rates, based upon attendance:

| | |
|---------------|-------|
| Up to 5 hours | £2.15 |
| 5 to 10 hours | £4.35 |
| Over 10 hours | £9.55 |

Travel

A travel allowance is paid for travel from home to Court, depending upon the mode of transport used:

| | |
|---|---|
| Public Transport | The actual fare paid |
| Private Car/Motorcycle | |
| Engine Capacity up to 1299cc | £0.46 per mile |
| Engine Capacity 1300cc or over | £0.52 per mile |
| Motorcycle | £0.26 per mile |
| Taxi - if urgent or no public service is reasonably available | Actual fare paid plus a reasonable gratuity |
| Taxi – in any other case | Fare that would have been paid if travelled by appropriate public transport |

Trials over 10 full days

Additional remuneration

In addition to the above remuneration payments, when the trial sits for more that 10 full days (on aggregate), for each day of the trial after the first 10 full days, jurors are entitled to the following:

| | |
|---|--------|
| When the trial sits for a full day, up to an additional | £57.00 |
| When the trial sits during only one half of the day, up to an additional: | £36.00 |